

Are all patients adjusted the same way?

No. Just as each person is unique, the care that each person receives should also be unique. Dr. Bahnemann evaluates each person and develops an individualized care plan. She takes into consideration many factors and attempts to accommodate individual preferences.

One thing is certain each chiropractic adjustment builds on the one before, so despite some differences there are similarities to everyone's care.

Back to How can Chiropractic help me?