

Is chiropractic safe?

Yes. Chiropractic has an excellent safety record. It is the result of a conservative and natural approach to health that avoids invasive procedures or addictive drugs.

As proof, one merely has to compare malpractice rates between chiropractors and other health care professionals. Chiropractors' malpractice premiums are only a fraction of those for medical doctors.

Check out the research section on chiropractic safety for more information.

Back to How can Chiropractic help me?